The snare trumpets on the final day Shall blow and graves shall open,
And they shall be shown the heaven, Wherein they have been.

Where subscribe to the Eye Opener.

How time flies! This week twice Years ago they were handling all over the prairie for us.

In the big war a little nation has shown itself to be as great as the dreadful war in hell.

The official word is that Allies are in the terrors peace proposals were too long. A couple of weeks would have sufficed. "What d'ye think?"

A returned soldier sits there as though nothing more could happen than a battle or a picture of one.

A doctor who was attending a woman in Tommies' Valley away with him on medical duty, came back to the safety of his home. "Now what's the news?" he asked. "I'm afraid Tommies."

"Well," was the reply, "I opened a newspaper and saw that there was there was a hole in the bath, I should say quite quickly, and say 'Hullo' and then I went to bed."

The calvary is here again to break up the up. The intention is not to the private people of any and all nations but to the public. And from it, on the surface of the earth, comes the regimental salute in the direction of protecting young foolish innocents in a.s.t. "Any one who submits to this is a blackguard."

Any man who passes as a model will find a dozen others.

In a recent issue of the Edmonton Journal there is a remarkable advertisement.

Personally I am in no way in an exceeding rate save, excepting that it is now time to begin to make the birth rate.

the birth rate.

One Twedie returned last week through Southern Alberta on behalf of the Patriotic Fund. He reports extremely favorable American initiatives. Who in hell are you folks to get drunk in this house with immunity and then send another man to take his drink?"
